

TERRIBLE

Was the Tornado That Visited Iowa Towns.

Children Picked Up Like Straws and Dashed to Death.

Schoolhouses Filled With Children Were Particularly Marked for Destruction—Estimated Number of Victims From Thirty to Three Hundred.

SIoux CITY, Ia., May 6.—At least 52 people are believed to have been killed in the terrible cyclone that passed over this part of Iowa. Some persons estimate the death toll between 200 and 250, but it is not believed it will reach that number. No one as yet can tell how great the loss of life is or how extensive the damage until reports from the outlying districts have been received. The telegraph wires in this section are all down and authentic information is hard to get. Three schoolhouses are known to have been demolished, two teachers and several pupils and nearly a score of others killed and many buildings wrecked.

A curious feature of the cyclone was the accompaniment of electrical violence and many deaths by lightning are reported.

The towns of Sioux Center, Ireton, Orange City, Perkins, Doon, Hull, Sheldon, Aiton, Ashton, Sibley and Le Mars were almost directly in the path of the cyclone. The storm was followed by furious wind and rainfall, which had not abated at an early hour Saturday morning. Numerous victims were found lodged in the trees, where they had been hurled by the wind. Where had stood fine residences could be found nothing but a cellar hole and in some cases a few twisted timbers, while strewn all over the ground were portions of buildings and furniture bearing not the least semblance of their original form, and useless except for kindling. Fields of sprouting grain are now bare, trees uprooted and all is desolation along the path of the cyclone.

A pitiful feature of the disaster is the number of youthful lives lost by the cruel winds. Three school houses near Sioux Center were destroyed while school was in progress and at each one from three to ten children were killed or injured. Many of the children were carried from a quarter to half a mile before they alighted. Two little daughters of John Koster, a farmer near Sioux Center, were picked up as they were leaving the schoolhouse and dashed into a wire fence, where both were killed. Two sons of C. H. Haggie at the same school house had their legs broken and received other injuries from which they will die. Mr. Haggie's house is near the school and, although he escaped, his daughter was so badly injured that she can not live. The parents of many of the children escaped the storm and are nearly frantic with anxiety to learn whether their little ones are dead or alive.

IT GOES OVER.

The Trial of Fulton Gordon in Louisville—The Accused Too Ill to Appear for a Hearing.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 6.—The case of Fulton Gordon, who caught his wife and young Arch Brown together in a house of bad repute here last Tuesday and killed both of them, was called Saturday morning, but was postponed until next Tuesday on account of the mental and physical condition of the accused. Gordon is in a serious condition.

The train has told on him both mentally and physically and, unless there is an improvement, the man bids fair to become a wreck.

He still refuses to discuss the tragedy and at every mention of it he becomes depressed, frequently fainting.

It seems to be settled that he will not be prosecuted by the relatives of either Brown or Nellie Bush, and the trial will, therefore, be more in the nature of a formality.

Smallpox in Jail.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 6.—A special from Winchester, Ky., says that Robt. White, colored, confined in jail there for housebreaking broke out with smallpox. The jail contains fifteen prisoners and the patient was removed to a pesthouse. The board of health has had all the other prisoners vaccinated and removed from the apartments adjoining the cell.

Price of Oil Again Reduced.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 6.—The Standard Oil Co. continues to reduce its price for oil, and as yet there is nothing to signify at what point the daily reductions will halt. On the Oil City exchange Saturday morning oil was freely offered at $1.07. On the Pittsburgh exchange the oil market opened at $1.50 bid. The Standard's price for Saturday is $1.60.

Oscar Wilde's Bail.

LONDON, May 6.—Justice Pollock Saturday morning announced his decision as to the admission of Oscar Wilde to bail. He has agreed to release Wilde upon bonds of £5,000, of which £1,250 each shall be furnished by two sureties and £2,500 by Wilde himself.

More Troops Called.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., May 6.—The Alexandria light infantry received orders Saturday morning to hold itself in readiness to proceed immediately to Pochontas, the scene of the mining troubles. The company will carry 100 men.

A Post Office Looted.

PORTLAND, Ind., May 6.—S. N. Felts' general store and the post office at Blaine, were looted by thieves, who carried off much valuable property. A horse and buggy were also stolen from Frank Michaels, of the same place.

Killed in Bed.

MANITOWOC, Wis., May 6.—A great storm passed over the village of Kellenburg, and John Anderia, 14 years old, who was yet in bed, was killed by a bolt of lightning.

CLEVELAND'S LETTER

To Gov. Stone of Mississippi, on the Money Question.

JACKSON, Miss., May 6.—Gov. Stone made public a letter which he had just received from President Cleveland, in which he commends the governor's attitude on the currency question, and says:

"If we, who profess fealty to the democratic party, are sincere in our devotion to its principles, and if we are right in believing that the ascendancy of those principles is a guarantee of personal liberty, universal care for the rights of all, nonsectional, American brotherhood and manly trust in American citizenship in any part of our land, we should study the effects upon our party and, consequently, upon our country of a committal of the national democracy to the debased silver standard. If there are democrats who suppose that our party can stand on a platform embodying such doctrines, either through its affirmative strength or through the perplexities of our opponents on the same proposition, or if there are democrats who are willing to turn their backs upon their party associations in the hope that free silver can win a victory without the aid of either party organization they should deceive themselves no longer nor refuse to face the results that will follow the defeat if not the disintegration of the democratic party on the issue which tempts them from their allegiance. If we should be forced away from our traditional doctrines of sound and safe money, our old antagonists will take the field on the platform which we abandon and neither the vote of reckless democrats nor reckless republicans will avail to stay their easy march to power. This is as plain as anything can possibly be. It, therefore, becomes the duty of every democrat, whoever he may be, to consider what such a victory would mean, and in the light of a proper conception of its results he should deliberately shape his course."

HURT THEIR CREDIT

And the Dun Agency is Sued for Resulting Damages.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 6.—In the United States court here George S. Durfee and brother, of Decatur, Ill., agricultural implement dealers, began suit for damages of $10,000 against the R. G. Dun & Co., commercial agency, of New York. The plaintiffs claim that in January, 1893, the commercial agency published a rating, giving their credit as limited. This, they maintain, though false, has injured their business greatly. The complainants are brothers of B. K. Durfee, insurance commissioner of Illinois.

Claus Blixt Pleads Guilty.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 6.—Claus Blixt, who was awaiting trial for the murder of Catherine Gilling, pleaded guilty. The prisoner was brought before Judge Pond Saturday morning and changed his plea of "not guilty" to guilty. But a short time was taken for the proceeding, as Blixt had evinced his desire to change his plea and his willingness to do so before May 14, the date regularly set for his trial. Blixt was then sentenced to imprisonment for life.

Powder Kegs Explode.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 6.—By the accidental explosion Saturday of two kegs of powder in the Schooley shaft of the Butler Mine Co., three men were probably fatally hurt and two seriously. The men who are expected to die are John Jenosky, John Relchus and Frank Pelpost. It is supposed the men were preparing cartridges for a blast, and in some way the powder was ignited and the explosion followed. The mine was but slightly damaged.

Debs' Reply.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 6.—President Debs, of the A. R. U., has replied to Chairman Thomas, of the General Managers. Debs charges that the Chicago riot was tools of the managers, and that some of them set fire to the cars in order, he says, to turn public sympathy against the strikers. If, says Debs, the A. R. U. committed these depredations, why not prosecute them?

Crushed in a Trench.

CINCINNATI, May 6.—James Haggerty, a plumber employed by Sullivan, the Central avenue plumber and gas fitter, was instantly killed Saturday about noon. He was at work in a trench on Cook street, Camp Washington, when the earth gave way and fell in on him, crushing him.

Will Marry His Divorced Wife.

LA PORTE, Ind., May 6.—Robert Ludwig, of Indianapolis, who was released on an order of parole from the Michigan City prison, will be remarried to his divorced wife. He was sentenced to serve a term of 15 years for attempted murder. The case has attracted widespread interest.

A Fatal Hiding Place.

NELLISVILLE, Wis., May 6.—During the electrical storm Mrs. Joseph Sutherland, of the town of York, fearing the storm, retired to the cellar, and no sooner was she there than lightning struck the house, stunned her husband and killed her.

Starved Into Surrender.

MOBILE, Ala., May 6.—Wm. George, murderer of George Trotter, has surrendered to the authorities. He took refuge in a swamp and was eight days without food. He presented a horribly emaciated condition, and his clothing was in tatters.

No Reply as Yet.

LONDON, May 6.—It was semi-officially announced Saturday afternoon that the British government has not yet received Nicaragua's acquiescence in the British demands. A definite reply can hardly be expected for a few days.

A Deadly Bolt.

GREEN BAY, Wis., May 6.—At Seymour, lightning struck the house of John Kitchener, killing the owner instantly and seriously injuring his wife. The long drought was broken here with a heavy storm.

TEXAS TORNADO.

Much Damage But No Fatalities Reported.

Houses Blown Down, Stock Killed and Fences Levelled.

The Rainfall Was Heavy, San Antonio Reporting Six Inches of Rain in Six Hours—Rain and Wind-Storm Does Damage in Alabama—Iowa Details.

DENISON, Tex., May 6.—A tornado passed over the eastern portion of this section Sunday morning. Houses were blown down, stock killed and fences levelled. The orchard of Mr. Mallory was entirely obliterated, several hundred peach trees being uprooted and blown away. No casualties are reported. The storm crossed Red river to the Indian territory, making a swath through the forest. At Aubrey sixteen miles north of here, the damage was about $1,500, one house being demolished, the family escaping with difficulty. Near Carrollton dwellings were moved from their foundations, and at Van Alstyne houses and barns were unroofed and several serious casualties resulted. The rainfall in the central and western portions of the state was heavy. San Antonio reports six inches of rain in six hours.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 6.—A wind and rain storm of extraordinary severity passed over the southern part of Cullman county late Sunday afternoon. All the wires are blown down and news of the damage is meager, although it is known to be great. The path of the storm was a half mile wide. Many buildings were destroyed and crops were ruined. Two miles west of Haneville the house of James Ellis was blown down and Ellis and his family of six all badly hurt. An 11-year-old boy has since died.

ALTON, Ia., May 6.—Funerals of victims of the tornado were held here Sunday in the midst of a terrible storm. In some parts of the country what remained after the big storm of last week was ruined by Sunday's blow. The valley of death from Ireton to Sioux Center, which nearly parallels the railroad track, was crowded all day with vehicles of every description. From all sides there was nothing but debris. Dead horses, cattle, sheep, chickens, articles of wearing apparel, portions of houses and barns, pieces of wagons and farming implements and everything movable were scattered along the route.

Around Sioux Center forty farmers are homeless or ruined. Another death, Mrs. Herman Heyman, of Welcoming township, was reported Sunday. In this vicinity sixteen are dead and fifteen injured. A child of Luther McCombs died Sunday morning. The wife of John Koster was blown away with the Koster house and found dead a quarter of a mile from where the building stood. Mrs. Postman, who was visiting the Kesters, was also killed.

In the district about the Haggie and Koster homesteads forty families are homeless and ruined. The same number is reported from Sioux Center, and between Perkins and Ashton, twenty-five families have nothing left. Altogether 300 families are homeless as the result of the tornado.

GOOD INSURANCE RISK.

John Postello is Knocked All Over Two Tracks by a Locomotive, But Was Not Killed.

ELIZABETH, N. J., May 6.—John Postello, an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad, was tossed about by two railroad trains Sunday night, and finally pitched down a twenty-five-foot embankment, and lives to tell of his experiences. Postello was walking along the west-bound railroad track, when he saw a train approaching, and stepped over on the east-bound track. He failed to notice the approach behind him of an east-bound freight train and the pilot of the locomotive struck him. Postello was tossed over on the west-bound track directly in front of a west-bound express. His body had scarcely struck the ties when he was scooped up by the pilot of the express locomotive and tossed down the high embankment. Postello was badly injured, but may recover.

Bank Robbed of a Large Amount.

ORION, Ill., May 6.—The State bank of this place was robbed by three experts early Saturday morning and about $5,000 in gold and bills taken. The vault was broken open and the small safe inside of it was then blown with nitroglycerin. After securing the booty the robbers boarded a Rock Island & Peoria train and rode as far as Galva, where all trace of them has been lost. It is supposed they started east from Galva for Chicago, and all intermediate stations have been notified to look out for them.

Smallpox Spreading.

CAMERON, W. Va., May 6.—Smallpox, which for some weeks has had its center in this state in the vicinity of Wheeling, is reported rapidly spreading into the adjoining counties, creating much excitement. Public schools have all been ordered closed. The Epworth league convention, announced to be held here beginning the 9th inst., has been indefinitely postponed, and several other public gatherings have been abandoned.

Poison for Four.

ATLANTA, Tex., May 6.—William H. Waddle gave poison to his three children, aged from 6 to 10 years, and then took a dose himself, evidently with suicidal intent. The children all died in a few minutes. Waddle is alive, but partially unconscious and unable to make any statement. His wife died a few months ago, and it is thought her loss is the direct cause of his awful act.

Campos Sure It's Over.

MADRID, May 6.—Capt. Gen. Martiex De Campos telegraphs that the end of the revolution is near and certain.
